CITY EMPLOYEES, AFTER cleaning and fixing up the Christmas decorations, are shown putting them up along Palm Canyon Drive Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The ornaments are first connected in the center and then run across to each side of the street. The ornaments were first purchased for the city by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, then maintained and kept up by the city. See additional picture on Page 2. (Desert Sun Photo)

SALARY SURVEY SET FOR COUNCIL

By FRED C. WEIGEL

The long-awaited State Personnel Board salary scale and classification survey for the City of Palm Springs has been completed, and is now ready for presentation to the City Council, it was learned today.

Complicated by the volume of detailed information which has gone into it, the survey has been under way for the past three months, and will be presented to the City Council at its next regular meeting on Dec. 9.

WHETHER THERE will be a preview of the survey by the administration and the press, was not known today. What the report reflects in the way of recommended changes is something which is also unknown.

The salary scale of employees of the City of Palm Springs is reported low, and the situation has been reflected in the number of vacancies that have been made in the local police department in the past year.

OTHER DEPARTMENTAL personnel, working within the city, have indicated the lack of sufficient salary.

THE MAJOR considerations by the State Personnel Board were: 1. In order to hire and retain well qualified personnel, salaries paid by a public agency must be comparable to salaries paid by private industry and other public agencies in the community for comparable positions. 2. Salaries for positions within the public agency must bear logical relationship to one another, and reflect the relative levels of responsibility.

The last complete survey, made by the state, was completed and presented to the council on Jan. 30, 1956, almost four years ago. Smaller surveys for classification have been made twice since, but an overall look at the situation has not been done.

CC Incorporation Talk Postponed

CATHEDRAL CITY — Discussion of incorporation of Cathedral City, scheduled at a Chamber of Commerce meeting last night, was postponed to a later date because of the illness of Paul Clark, incorporation committee investigation chairman.

The group discussed finances for the coming year in place of the scheduled incorporation information.

Case 'Settled'

Mosk Demands Chessman Death

WASHINGTON (UPI) — California Attorney General Stanley Mosk today urged the U. S. Supreme Court to reject the latest appeal of convict — author Caryl Chessman, who has carried on a legal fight against death in the gas chamber for 11½ years.

Mosk said in a brief filed with the high court that all the questions raised by Chessman have been settled by the high tribunal previously.

HE DESCRIBED AS "legally groundless and factually false" allegations by Chessman that recent state procedures in his case were unfair.

Chessman, the former "red light bandit" of Los Angeles, has complained that his right to a true trial record for use in appeals has been denied. This is because the court reporter at Chessman's 1948 trial died before he could transcribe all his shorthand notes.

A SUBSTITUTE reporter finished transcribing the record. Chessman contends the notes were illegible.

In June, 1957, the U. S. Supreme Court ordered California courts to look into this claim. After hearings, about 2,000 changes were ordered in the transcript but it was held that the substitute had performed his work adequately.

CHESSMAN ARGUED that his rights remain impaired. But Mosk said "the mandate of this court has been carefully complied with." He reviewed in detail the testimony of several court reporters. "It should be noted," Mosk added, "that Chessman himself stated at the transcript hearing that he had been granted a 'full, fair and complete hearing.'"

300 French Villagers Die As Dam Bursts

Riviera Village Ravaged by Wall Of Rushing Water

FREJUS, France (UPI) — The 200-foot high Malpasat Dam burst Wednesday night with a noise like the crack of doom and sent a 35-foot wall of water on this sleeping Riviera town.

The French news agency AFP reported tonight that more than 300 bodies have been counted in the disaster.

TAKE MIDDLE ROAD WITH TEEN-AGERS, SAYS PSYCHIATRIST

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A California Youth Authority (CYA) psychiatrist has advised parents of teenagers to take a middle-of-the-road course "between uncompromising severity and carte blanche permissiveness" in handling their youngsters.

Dr. Mark Gerstle makes the suggestion in a new booklet distributed by the CYA.

He warns that above all else, teenagers are consistently inconsistent, and therefore, for the most part unpredictable.

Mickey Cohen Ordered Jailed In Gang Slaying

SHERMAN OAKS, Calif. (UPI) — Ex-convict Mickey Cohen was ordered booked today on suspicion of murder for the gangland slaying of a widely known bookie.

Cohen and 25 other guests were dining at a swanky restaurant where Jack Whalen, 39, a bookie, was brazenly shot to death Wednesday night.

Police said the murder scene was "rearranged" before they were called.

Police ordered the booking because of "discrepancies" in stories told by witnesses to the slaying.

Cohen was expected to be booked following conferences with his attorney and police.

Ike to Address Nation Before Launching Tour

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower embarks tonight on a fateful peace mission along the perimeter of Russia with a parting word to fellow Americans to compose their economic quarrels lest the entire free world suffer.

The Chief Executive and a relatively small staff leave by jet transport from nearby Andrews Air Force Base about 5 p.m. p.s.t. for Rome on the first leg of Eisenhower's 22,370-mile journey to 11 nations.

Before departing, however, Eisenhower called the National Security Council into session. He also arranged a farewell conference with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter who leaves later this month for the North Atlantic Treaty ministers meeting in Paris.

Shortly before boarding his plane, Eisenhower will address the nation by radio and television at 4:15 p.m. p.s.t., outlining his trip and pointing to the unbreakable connection between economic stability at home and the maintenance of peace through strength in other lands.

FCC ORDERS ALL RADIO, TV STATIONS TO TELL FINANCING

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Communications Commission took an unprecedented step today aimed at cracking down on payola and deceptive advertising practices on radio and television.

It did so by ordering every radio and television station in the country to submit within 30 days complete information on the financing of its programs.

The request for the information was contained in a letter sent to all of the 5,236 radio and television stations licensed by the FCC.

NURSERY SCHOOL GIVEN APPROVAL

Edith Ritter's persistent and controversy-wracked quest for a nursery school permit was given six to one approval by the Palm Springs Planning Commission.

The application, one of four public hearings on yesterday's commission agenda, involves a conditional use permit for a school to be located at the northeast corner of Compadre Road and Ranchero Road in the Palm Valley Estates.

CONDITIONS STIPULATED included no exterior music or play except between 9 a.m. and 6 p.m., erection of a six-foot wall around areas not enclosed by buildings, and site plan conformity to city engineering specifications.

The hearing on the application by Samuel P. and Sophia M. Maloof for a zone change from R-1a to R-2 for three lots in Tahquitz Park on Baristo Road near San Jacinto Drive was closed, and a field trip set.

MALOOF STATED the property as currently zoned was not usable. Leonard Bock, attorney for Maloof, asserted that Baristo is not now a "quiet residential" street because of traffic to and from the Tennis Club, Robinson's store, and the Community Church. The commission, he said, must decide whether to open the area for rental occupancy, or to "let the lots remain vacant to protect vacant lots across the street and houses several lots away."

THE COMMISSION continued the hearing on application by Lindy Lou's Pancake House for a conditional use permit for outdoor dining at 211 East Palm Canyon. A field trip was set to study location of palm trees moved to South Palm Canyon by commission directive.

The hearing on application by Stanley A. Rosin for zone change from C-1 and G-R to C-2 for two lots on South Palm Canyon Drive south of Camino Parcela was closed, with a field trip set to study proposed usage.

AN APPLICATION by Jack Weiss, Los Angeles, for approval of a record of survey for a new cooperative apartment development.

Chamber Bares Airlansea Ban

PALM DESERT — A resolution has been passed by the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce which asks that the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Air Traffic Conference and various individual airlines investigate "flagrant discrimination" leveled against Airlansea World Wide Travel Service in Palm Desert.

The chamber asks that the discrimination be "immediately investigated" and "post haste rectified by the granting of recognition by the individual carrier of the Airlansea World Wide Travel Service."

FURTHER THE resolution discloses that "they be allowed to continue their fine service to this community of Palm Desert on an equal basis with any travel service serving a community."

Rumwell Says Petition Now Being Drawn

'Sufficient' Funds Subscribed to Back Move, Says Gobel

A recall petition to oust Councilwoman Mary Carlin from office, threatened by some spectators at the last council meeting on Nov. 24, is now being drawn by Palm Springs attorney Arnold Rumwell, it was learned here today.

Adam Gobel, manager of the Mermaid Hotel, 2305 North Indian Avenue, told The Desert Sun that a sufficient amount of money has been subscribed to handle the petition.

TWENTY-FIVE SIGNATURES are necessary to petition the City Council to set a recall election, and all must be registered voters in District 4.

Gobel, who led the attack against Mrs. Carlin's rate sign at the last council session, said that in the 1930's when he came to Palm Springs the slogan was "Come to Palm Springs, relax in the sun and rub elbows with the stars."

"Today, if this rate sign reaction continues, the slogan will be reversed," said Gobel.

GOBEL SAID that the reason for the recall petition is based on the fact that "Mrs. Carlin, as a councilwoman, is not upholding her sworn duty to uphold the laws of the city, and her defiance of the city to remove the rate sign," added Gobel.

He said that he has a lot of backing in the move to draw the petition, and that the drive to collect the $250 expense money needed to handle the petition "has been very successful."

ACCORDING TO Mary G. Ringwald, city clerk, the procedure that must be followed to file a recall petition includes: (1) the filing of a notice of intention to circulate a petition of recall; (2) there must be seven days given for the councilman to answer; (3) the petition and answer (if any) are then published and seven days after the publication the petition can be circulated.

Petitioners have up to 60 days in which to get the required number of signatures, and then the City Clerk has 15 days in which to determine the sufficiency of the petition and then make a recommendation to the council.

If the petition is found sufficient, the council immediately sets an election, to be held not less than 60 days nor more than 75 days from that date.

GETTING INTO THE CHRISTMAS spirit, the City of Palm Springs this week put up its Christmas decorations along Palm Canyon Drive, and they number 16 sets between Tamarisk Drive and Ramon Road. The strings, retained by the city all year, are stored in the parachute hangar at the airport until November, then are taken down, cleaned, burned out bulbs replaced, and made ready for the street display just after Thanksgiving. (Desert Sun Photo)

'Last of the Indian Princes' Says His Nation Will Fight

By PEYTON CANARY
Prince Tarn Lolzani, a high-caste Hindustani from Bombay, will be the last of his titular line — and he applauds his nation's progress as "the only Democratic country in Asia."

The prince — in this country for a series of business conferences which he asserts will result in "a new electronics plant and a paper pulp mill for India," discussed the politics and economics of his teeming nation Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Thomas B. Davis in Thunderbird Estates.

PRINCE LOZANI

INDIAN PRINCES may hold their present titles during their lives, but titles will no longer succeed. The Indian princely states have already been absorbed into the 14 states and six territories of the Republic of India.

Prince Lolzani's home state of Bombay has approximately 47,800,000 of India's 392,440,000 people. Under European trading agreements which evolved into civil rule, Bombay was controlled by Portuguese and then British authorities for approximately four centuries.

Prince Lolzani said "Americans and Indians are beginning to understand one another better, and America is better liked in India than it used to be."

HE CONTINUED that Indian neutrality is necessary to keep the peace and allow India to improve the living standards of its population, and that Americans "now realize that Indian neutrality is not anti-American."

Nehru, a progressive Socialist and prime minister of the nation since 1952, "must follow the will of our people," Lolzani said, citing public reversals of policy concerning the Hungarian revolts and Indo-China as examples of public power on the Indian government.

Prince Lolzani asserted Indian troops "are better than Red Chinese troops, and they would love to fight — but our nation must avoid war, if possible, to permit improvement in the living standards."

DESPITE ECONOMIC necessity for neutrality, Lolzani said the frontier disputes with Red China has helped close the gaps between the Republic of India and Pakistan, and that the two nations present a solid front against Red encroachment.

"We want peace—but we would fight if we must," he said.

Russia broke the stalemate in production, lignite mining, and expansion of electrical plants, communications and transportation facilities.

In addition to a variety of raw materials, current chief products of the country are textiles and light manufactured goods.

Prince Lolzani visited his brother Sheru in Rye, N.Y. during his recent east coast visit. "My brother is an American citizen — so you can see how well we think of this country," he said.

R. A. M. Names Long Priest in 1960 Elections

Officers for 1960 were elected Tuesday evening at the convocation of the Desert Chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

Elected were Archie Long, high priest; Cecil T. Gordon, king; Roy R. Miller, scribe; James W. Scott, treasurer, and John Spargur, secretary. Appointive officers and committees are to be announced.

The convocation also heard reports from officers and committees in the business portion of the dinner meeting.

New President

Hart Will Head Safety Council

Harden Hart, Jr., vice president - manager of City National Bank, has been elected president of the Palm Springs Safety Council, it was reported today.

New officers of the organization chosen at the last meeting included: Robert Hill, vice president; Marcie Esbitz, secretary; Don Wexler, Treasurer; and two new directors, Phil Abrams and John Sanborn.

OFFICERS OF THE organization who were retained on the board of directors were George Bond and Dr. George Milkie.

A new position on the board of directors was initiated at this election — the position of past president — which will hold a seat on the board of directors as an adviser. Don Miller was elected to that position.

NEXT MEETING of the Safety Council will be held at noon Friday in the Biltmore Hotel with safety representatives of local civic organizations and the city administration present.

The speaker at the meeting will outline the Desert Press Club of Palm Springs' program of activities and publicity for holiday accident prevention.

The next meeting of the board of directors of the organization will be held Dec. 8 at a place to be announced later.

NEW CHRISTMAS CONTEST POPULAR

The pictures are coming in daily by the dozens. Keep them coming.

The more pictures you enter the better chance you have of being a winner. Then the more you have for Christmas or Hanukkah gifts.

Caution! . . . You must follow the rules. There will be three winners: Kindergarten through grade 2, grades 3 through 5, and grade 6 through 14 years of age.

1. DRAW IN BLACK ink, pencil or crayon a Christmas or Hanukkah picture.

2. Pictures are to be on white paper 5" x 6".

3. The pictures will be judged on originality, creativity, and neatness.

4. Pictures must be in by Dec. 10.

5. Put your name, age, grade and address on the back.

6. THERE ARE ALWAYS two winners — the good loser, who keeps on trying, and the gracious winner.

THE FIGHTING CREW
By Timothy Smith (8), 31-069
San Gabriel Circle, Palm Springs.

Once upon a time there was a clam, crab, and starfish. The crab was walking along the bottom of the sea. Then it happened! They met. They had to meet. The crab and clam were the two worst enemies that ever roamed the sea.

This is what the crab said, "Clip-clop, clip-clop, clip-clop, you pinch me."
And this is what the clam said, "You hurt me with your hands."

"Why, how in the world can you say that when you pinch me on the nose and hurt me," said the crab.

As time passed, nine days went by and soon ten, and not a wink of sleep and they were still fighting. Maybe they are fighting today, but now we must get back to the story. Fight-fight-fight, that is all they ever do. Whenever they seem to meet, they start right in and fight.

"Now can I say something," said the crab, "You clip right on my nose and make it red."

The starfish came by and said, "Be quiet, or you will win the NOISY TROPHY."

How I Made It

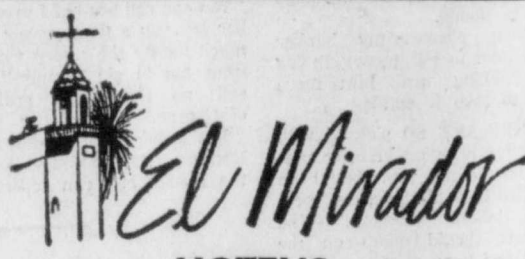

A Holiday Treat — It sounds delicious!!

I am 11½ years old and like to make salads for dinner. A few nights ago I made a salad, and my family liked it very much. You might like it for your dinner.

Cottage cheese
Half pears (canned)
Monterey Jack Cheese (shredded)
Avocado
Brown sugar
Put a full tablespoon of cottage cheese on a plate. Spread it around a little, and then take a half pear and put it on top of the cottage cheese. Sprinkle the shredded cheese over the pear and around the cottage cheese. Then put a slice of avocado on top and sprinkle with brown sugar.

The Desert Sun is an independent newspaper dedicated to truth, accuracy and impartiality in the news, to the progress of the desert region, to the support of that which it believes to be right and to the defeat of that which it believes wrong

Solar Power Nearer

The world's greatest and cheapest source of power is solar energy.

This fact has long been known to our scientists, engineers and inventors, but up to now there has been no concerted effort or broad general program in the United States for conversion of the sun's rays into useful energy for the almost limitless ways it could be utilized in everyday life.

Lack of progress in this direction should be of definite concern to all of us who live in the desert region where an abundance of sunshine holds great promise for extensive benefits as the center of the solar power developments.

On the dark side of the solar power situation it is discouraging to learn that Russia is considerably ahead of America in conversion and application of solar power to domestic use. Authenticated reports from behind the Iron Curtain show that the Soviets have nearly completed a model "solar" city. Ironically most of the information necessary to its design and construction was obtained in the United States by photographing copies of 80 per cent of the 5,000 books, articles and documents on solar energy contained in the American library.

On the brighter side for this country was the introduction of a bill in Congress for an appropriation of one million dollars annually for ten years for research work aimed at keeping pace with the Reds in the race to put the sun to work.

Also that even on an unorganized basis Americans have made a considerable amount of scattered progress in applying solar energy.

Here in Palm Springs the first solar clock for public view at the local Chamber of Commerce has been performing perfectly for several years attesting to the potency and dependability of the almost continuous daily brilliance of the sun here. In some instances houses are being heated and cooled by solar energy. Water for domestic use and swimming pools is likewise being heated by the sun's rays. Pilot plants have converted salt water to fresh water while a lighthouse is successfully operating on solar power. Electric eye doors and a variety of modern appliances designed for electrical power are being operated on solar energy in tests indicating that large solar power plants will one day be possible and practical.

Already one can buy these items, among other things, on the market: Solar radios which condense enough electric energy to run two hours for each hour of exposure to the sun; solar cigarette lighters which will light a cigarette in a few seconds; solar kettles for cookouts which sell as cheaply as moderately priced conventional barbecues; solar engines and pumps; solar stills to purify salt water; solar hot water heaters; and, solar heating and cooling plants for homes and buildings.

Three large scale applications expected soon are climate control in extending crop growing seasons and elimination of frost damage, solar dissipation of ground fog at airports; and capturing of certain beneficial elements of the rays of the sun for use in the production of artificial food.

These are only a few of the ways in which solar energy can be used for the benefit of mankind, but they are ample to demonstrate the importance of pressing for organized research and nationwide attention to the development of the solar field.

With millions of dollars annually being poured into the harnessing of atomic power, which at best is terrifically expensive to produce and utilize, the comparatively small request of a million dollars annually for solar energy research seems almost too small in view of the tremendous possibilities in the latter almost unlimited field.

Reports on Reuther

WASHINGTON, D. C. —Non-partisanship in politics isn't impossible, but it is about as rare as platonic love. And the place where non-partisanship scarcely finds the breath for life is in such a group as the Senate Select (McClellan) Committee on Improper Activities in Labor-Management Relations.

The point needs reiteration, I think, because the Committee will supposedly end its existence next month, and the staffers are now working hard to produce the final report which should make national reading — and will surely make national orating among the 1960 candidates for all offices.

IN A BALANCED Committee (Four Democrats and four Republicans, a Democratic staff with counsel and a Republican staff with counsel), the conflict is not one of numbers but of willpower. Had Senator McClellan (D., Ark.) been a Liberal Democrat, he would have been the dominant figure instead of Patience on a Monument, which is the part he played.

The two strongest wills, over the three-year period, turned out to be Senator Barry Goldwater (R., Ariz.) and Counsel Robert Kennedy (D., Mass.) who has recently resigned. This leaves Goldwater as king of the mountain. Should the McClellan Committee hold any more meetings, which is doubtful, Goldwater could dominate.

AS IT IS, I think Goldwater will dominate the joint Democratic-Republican report, especially the parts which deal with the Senator's bete noir, Labor Leader Walter Reuther, President of the United Auto Workers. "It is my understanding," wrote Goldwater on Nov. 13 to the acting chief counsel of the Committee, "that . . . there shall be two reports, one written by the Republicans and the other by the Democrats, published in one volume and covering various phases of the UAW investigation."

NEEDLESS TO SAY, there will be little common ground in the partisan appraisals of Reuther and his Labor statesmanship. A few days ago, I would have written that Reuther is one of those lonely and career-captivated men to whom life has denied an objective judgment by his contemporaries.

But I would not make such a statement since reading William Manchester's clinical, full-rounded biography of Reuther. Here we find the radical red-head, guarded everywhere by men and dogs, living in a moated, padlocked voluntary prison with his wife and two daughters, ridden by a Messianic complex which gives him a mission to bring about "brotherhood of man," a marathon monologist, a strike-strategist, a manipulator of manpower (but not very fond of humans outside the family), a meddler in other people's businesses, a political boss and a possible President-maker.

OBVIOUSLY THIS complex personality, although a biographer's delight, is too much horse for any politician to ride. The McClellan Committee report (D) on Reuther is sure to be an anemic defense, while the Manchester report (R) is sure to be a sulphuric indictment.

The Democratic position would be that Reuther has a right to be the man that Bill Manchester's book says he is. The Republican position would be that Reuther, a public person, has no right to hold the power he does over private persons and institutions, and that the American Republic was never intended to give such protections and immunities as Big Labor has now accumulated under Reuther's leadership.

WHILE I WOULD much rather read or write the Manchester biography, I believe that the Goldwater image of Reuther as a power-maniac, and the Republican indictment of Reuther as the president of a violent and corrupt Union, add up to very serious public business.

In all, we should feel lucky that non-partisanship and even objectivity do not extend into Congressional probing committees. For although a fascinating personality study, Reuther is also a very large political combustion which requires fire wardens.

'Til Christmas Eve
But still I've yet to hear
Jingle Bells or White Christmas or
Rudy the Red-Nosed deer.

But there are many hours left for the disc jockeys to put them on the air.

Perhaps they are afraid that if they play them too often a congressional investigating committee might subpoena Santa in a quiz on rigged programs.

Might accuse him of being in on a payola fix.

STREET DECORATIONS in honor of the Yule season, however, have been up for almost two weeks in some communities and are already wind-blown and smog-speckled.

Santa Claus parades were staged even before the turkey turned to a golden brown.

So it's to be expected that all of the Christmas songs will be on the air soon.

And people will be sitting in bars listening to hymns.

THAT LAST sentence above reminds me of a letter received the other day.

After the customary salutation, it went on:

"I am surprised that a man, who has been writing as long as you have, starts sentences with conjunctions, 'and' and 'but' frequently."

"As a strict grammarian, such construction jolts me."

"Don't you know any better?"

YES, DEAR TEACHER, I do. But, (there I go again) I believe that our language is an ever-changing one. What was good usage when I started in, has been discarded for style to give more punch. I know that "and" joins related thoughts and should come in after a comma or no punctuation at all.

I can't see the difference, however, of sticking in a period and starting a new sentence. A shorter sentence is easier to write and to read.

ANYWAY, when I sat down to peck out my first story for a newspaper, away back when, and hesitated too long before taking off, the editor came over to me and asked:

"What's the matter, kid, stuck?"

"Yes, I'm trying to think of the proper words."

"Don't try," he said. "You'll spoil it. Write it as if you were talking to me."

So I even used "ain't."

By the way, that word is in most dictionaries now.

AT LONG LAST, there's a direct thoroughfare to the city hall and growing Civic Center out by the airport. That's the new Tahquitz - McCallum Way street across the Indian Reservation. No longer do you have to go a mile out of your way via Tamarisk or Ramon.

There has been talk of such a street ever since the city hall moved out there and money for it was voted four years ago.

Now we've got it and it is an important step in the growth of Palm Springs.

Feet of Clay

STAN DELAPLANE:

S. Claus Rides Again

Did you start a Christmas Savings Fund last year like the nice banker advised you? Neither did I.

Consequently, we are on the shorts. And whether we will have the Christmas goose depends on the charitable heart of the village jugman.

"Will you borrow me a C-note, Banker?"

THAT IS THE WAY I approach the jugman. When I go to the bank, I go humbly. It takes me three or four days, thinking up the approaches, I am that nervous.

My banker sits behind a glass window. You can see him from the street. I drive round and round the block, casing the situation. Is my Banker happy? Is his digestion good? Is he getting along well with Mrs. Banker?

These are things we must consider before putting on the bite.

I AM BANKER to my teenage heiress. She owed me a fortune. A dollar here and a couple of skins there until we never knew where we stood.

She was positive she paid it back. Well, some of it, anyway. "I paid you out of the baby-sitting money. I remember just as well!"

I do not remember it. I remember digging down to replace the stockings with the run in them. I remember coming up like a gent for the emergency hair spray. I do not remember anything coming my way.

YOU KNOW WE figured out the best thing! How to solve the whole problem. It was simply Marvelous!

"We'll cancel everything I owe you and start all over again. Then we won't have any arguments."

Well, it did seem like a splendid idea. So we did it.

We canceled all debts and started over again.

You know how we started. She was so relieved to be free of debt, she borrowed $2 right then.

We both feel a lot better about the whole thing.

MY SON IS 4 years old. He has not learned about money but knows which side the old man is buttered on.

He turns on the charm. That sunny smile. Then we go shopping for toys. (Then we come home and he takes them apart beyond repair. What difference? We can go buy more. That is his idea.)

He does not know I am down, hat in hand, with the banker. Threatening to cut my throat on his doorstep on Christmas Eve if he does not come up with the ready.

HE THINKS I GET my money from the boy who delivers the papers. He thinks I go to a newspaper office and print a paper. Then I give it to the boy and tell that boy: "Go deliver this paper to my house."

My son goes down and gets this paper at the end of the driveway. Then he brings it home. (Sometimes he runs the hose over it first. But that is only normal, scientific experiment. To see if it will melt.)

The paper boy comes once a month. We pay him. Then he goes to my office and gives me the money so I can bring it home and buy toys. That is the way it works.

DO YOU KNOW that small children salted away $4 million in the Nation's jugs last year? True. That is the word from the American Bankers Association. Children's savings have increased 19 per cent this year.

The Bankers Association thinks that is dandy.

Nothing pleases my banker more than to put money in his jug. Nothing hurts him more than to take it out.

BANKS ARE SO pleased with small fry bringing in their pennies for deposit that they have installed little platforms at "pediatric tellers' windows." The moppets should climb on the stand and hand over the bubble gum money.

We do not have a pediatric borrowers' window yet.

We cannot progress too rapidly. I still do the borrowing. I do not climb on a platform, either. I kneel. It is not too hard. My banker is thoughtful. He provides wall-to-wall carpeting. You can kneel anywhere.

"What good will quotations from Plato, Aristotle and Socrates do us, Professor? . . . When we go out into the world, it'll mostly be stock market quotations! . . ."

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Helpers Help Again

HOLLYWOOD — The Helpers, the group of Hollywood people that is the main means of support for the Reiss-Davis Clinic for Mentally Disturbed Children, celebrated a 25th birthday party for itself in THREE ballrooms of the Beverly Hilton Hotel that will be hard to surpass — complete with Kim Novak, Janet Blair and Jane Wyman cutting the Silver Anniversary cake.

The gang of Good Scouts also raised $77,500 on the show staged at the $100-a-plate party . . . I talked to each of the stars of the show before I cut out to cover Kathryn Grayson's opening at the Moulin Rouge, her first nightclub engagement in the Hollywood that made her a movie star.

GEORGE BURNS (nervous about performing before a bunch of pros): "Dean Martin told me to relax like he does — I tried it and all I got was the hiccups!"

Miss Wyman, whose date was ex-husband Fred Karger: "No, Fred and I will NOT remarry, despite what some people say. I live in Lido Isle, California miles and miles from here, and Fred is nice enough to act as my escort whenever I come to town for social affairs — and that's all there is to it." (Aside from sidekick Karger: "That's right!")

ERNIE KOVACS: "I was supposed to arrive early and introduce the first act but I went to the premiere of 'Ben-Hur' last night. Did somebody say that movie runs four hours. Then how come it's STILL running?" Shirley Jones: "I just finished my first movie, 'Elmer Gantry,' and now I'm going to screen test for the part of Natalie in 'From the Terrace' . . . Jack Cassidy, Shirley's husband: "I just screen tested for my first movie, the part of the guy who loses Marilyn Monroe to Rock Hudson in 'Let's Make Love.' I lost it."

HERE'S CONSOLATION for Cassidy: he and his wife have been signed to team in Bell Tel's Jan. 1 TV salute to U.S. Embassies throughout the world, along with Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong and Taina Elg.

Comedian Dick Shawn to ventriloquist Rickie Layne: "Isn't that George Burns standing over there talking to Bobby Darin?" Layne: "Sure, you remember him — he's the comedian who used to have a girl in his act named Gracie something-or-other."

DAN DAILEY: "My wife told a girl friend to use black coffee to sober up her husband but I talked the gal out of it — after all, the only thing she could get out of a remedy like that would be a wide-awake drunk."

Before I ducked out on the happy Helpers' hoedown, I asked that "girl" from Burns's old act to review George's new non-Gracie act for me. "Be a good little leg-girl for me, Gracie," I pleaded. "Take notes, write it out when you get home, and you can dictate it to me when I phone you at home in the morning."

BUT BEFORE Gracie could answer, George butted in with: "You can call her but I won't let her tell you a thing except how much money she's been winning from me in gin rummy!" Result: no Gracie-type criticism of George.

But I did get a good look at Kathryn Grayson's new act at the Moulin and can report it's solid all the way, especially when Katie cuts loose from her operatic aria from "Madam Butterfly" and lets fly with a jazzed-up "Mack the Knife" — while her friend Betty Lanza, Mario's widow, stood backstage through both opening night shows encouraging her.

CHANNEL CHATTER — Eric Fleming will swap the saddle from his Rawhide series for a suture stint in a new British movie. He'll play the surgeon in "Each Day I Die."

Jack Kelly stands out like a sore thumb on the Warner-TV lot these days. Every other star from Kookie (77 Sunset Strip) Byrnes to Ty (Bronco) Hardin is complaining about small salaries and long working hours. Not Jack — he says he couldn't be happier than he is in Maverick!

FOX-TV HIRED dramatic coach Charlie Conrad to give Gardner McKay, the star of Adventures in Paradise, "more power and authority" as an actor. It seems to be working . . . Incidentally, if an upcoming Paradise segment looks like it was shot on the set of Pat Boone's Fox movie, "Journey to the Center of the Earth," it was!

Posterity is just around the corner for Christine and Steve Forrest. Their third child.

Bob (Wagon Train) Horton is steady-dating starlet Cindy Robbins. Says he, "I don't want to cut in on the publicity for Jerry Lewis's new 'Cinderella' movie but go right ahead and write it in your column — I'm Cindy's fella!"

JOHN VIVIAN, a new star as a result of the Mr. Lucky series, is learning the hard way that a star's life isn't all champagne and caviar, especially in the fast-shooting, "round-the-clock world of filmed TV. As the ex-Chicagoan tells me: "I guess you could say, conservatively, that 18 hours a day ain't ALL dark glasses and signing autographs."

I hear on reliable authority from a practically unimpeachable source that little Evelyn (Eloise) Rudie, who broke her piggybank open for her highly publicized flight from Hollywood to Mamie Eisenhower in Washington, has asked Santa Claus for a new piggybank.

THE SWITCH OF the century: Don Rickles, The Emperor of Insult himself, sitting ringside in the Sunset Strip's Cloister, being insulted from the stage by another fast-on-his-feet comic, Joey Bishop: "Lookit that Rickles — why should he sit there looking so smug? He flunked his sand-piles course in kindergarten!" I asked William Wyler, whose "Ben-Hur" is the biggest picture since "Gone With the Wind," what he'll direct next. He sighed and said, "I'd like to do something small for a change. A half-hour TV show maybe — you know, one of those comedies where the only effort the star makes is to pick up a telephone."

December 3, 1949

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is a guest of Floyd Odium at the Odium-Cochran Ranch.

Cathedral City School has the honor of being the first one in the district outside of Palm Springs to serve hot lunches to its pupils.

A new, additional water tank to serve Cathedral City's growth has been erected up the hill approximately a mile south and 236 feet higher than the present tank.

December 3, 1939

Business people of Palm Canyon Drive between Tahquitz Drive and Arenas Road have asked City Council that the controlled two-hour parking be extended one more block south to include their block.

A new gold strike has been made near Cathedral City, consisting of two big low grade mineralized quartz ledges lying one above the other in blanket form between the granite and lime rock. It assays up to $10 per ton on the surface.

Total rainfall for the season so far is 4.36 inches.

Santa Claus to Pay Visit Tomorrow at Junior Bazaar

Santa Claus will make a brief stop over in Palm Springs tomorrow on his way to the North Pole and will be on hand to greet the youngsters from 10 until 1 at the Palm Springs Junior Women's Club Christmas Bazaar to be held at the Palm Springs Playhouse from 9 to 4.

Bill Anderson and Richard Kimberly will be there to take pictures of the youngsters and their jolly friend.

A special table of gift items, budget priced at fifty cents or less, will be set up for the small fry so they may do their own Christmas shopping. There will be gaily decorated pencil holders, button boxes and numerous other gifts.

Other items, hand-made by club members, are adorable octopi to delight children and grown ups alike, jeweled key chains, decorated bottles, a variety of Christmas and party aprons, hand-painted guest towels and dusters, gift boxes, centerpieces and decorated candles to lend a festive air to the inside of any home, and for outside decorations there are mail box covers designed with Holiday Greetings; giant sized and gaily decorated stockings for every member of the family to hold the gifts from Santa.

Among those who will be on hand to help the shoppers are Mrs. J. R. Wahlberg, chairman of the bazaar assisted by co-chairmen, Mmes. Sidney Watson, Gene Stormoen, Terrence Roach, Martin Johnson, Edwin Buckheim Jr., William Anderson and Richard Kimberly and most members of the Palm Springs Junior Women's Club.

Artists to Visit Village

A group of artists from Alberta Babcock's Citrus College art class will journey to Palm Springs Saturday and set up their easels on the lawn of the Corwin Spencer residence at 448 Hermosa Place.

In the group will be several celebrated artists, who are personal friends of Mrs. Babcock, the class instructor. A former resident of Palm Springs, Mrs. Babcock is regarded as one of Southern California's ranking artists. Her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Temple, who recently moved to Glendora from Iowa, will also be in the group.

Following a buffet luncheon they will set up easels to paint desert scenes. Also attending will be Mrs. Bert Stolpe of Glendora, Mrs. Claude Gottbeht and Mrs. E. Yerkes of Palm Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. John Hilton of Twentynine Palms. Mr. Hilton is a noted writer, musician, painter, and scientist. He often entertains informally by singing and accompanying himself on the guitar.

Members of the class who will be attending will be Irene Bryla, Dora Childerhose, Ruth Kirwan, Evelyn Herp, Ruth Jaegus, Bonnie Licata, Rene McKiernan, Jacqueline Ross and Zell Bell of Glendora, Molly Getten and Jean Wolf of Arcadia, Betty Davis and Harriett Englund of Azusa, Vivian Fulkner of Pasadena, and Marie Parr of Covina.

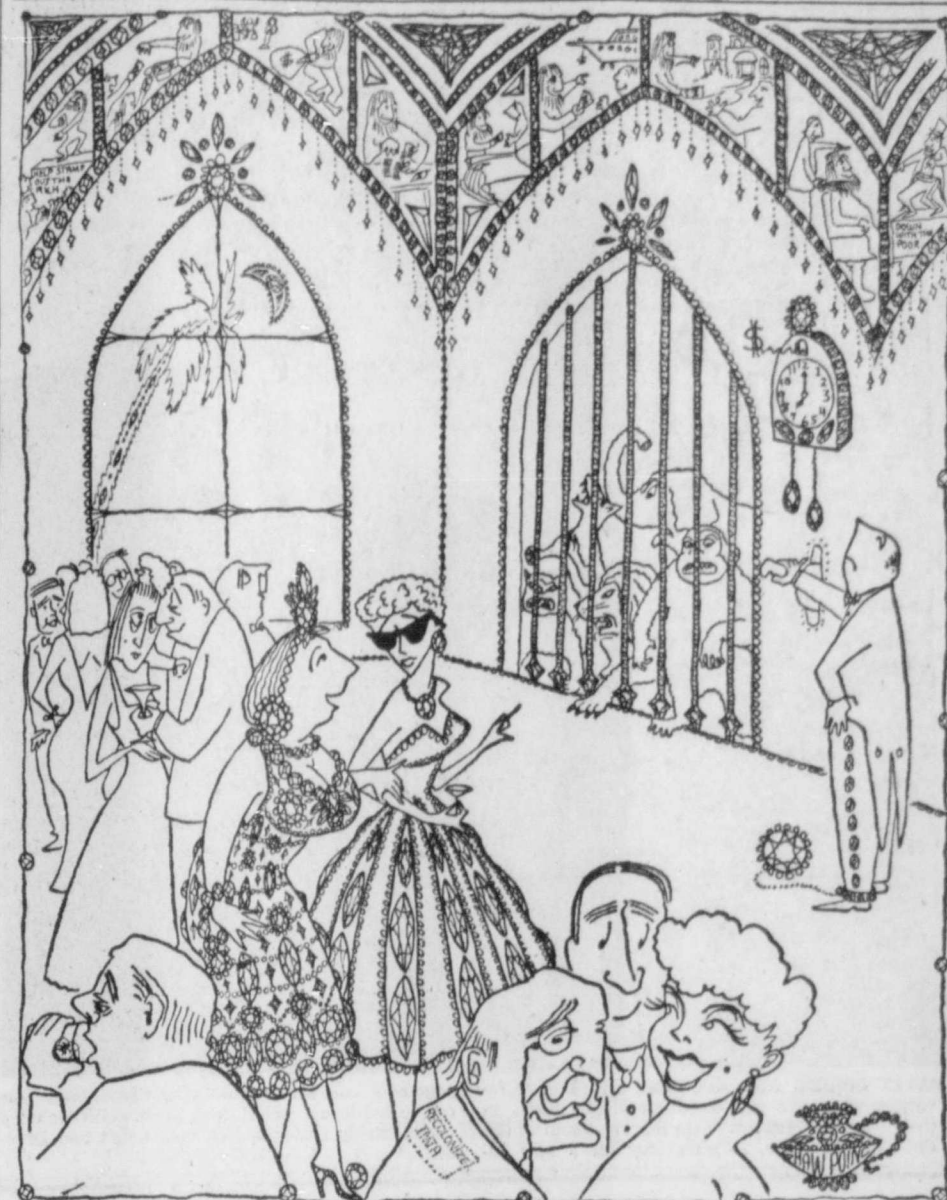

Newlyweds Honored at Sunday Brunch

Champagne cocktails with strawberry swizzles preceded the Sunday brunch at the George Gannon home on Ocotillo Avenue, which honored the newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Tony Campbell. The bride was the former Louise Celliston, and the Gannons were in the wedding party in Las Vegas when she became Mrs. Tony Campbell recently.

Brunch guests included the Ed Rothbarts, Asher Levys, Harry Joe Browns, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Welsh, all of Palm Springs; the David Homans, Mrs. Charles Callahan and son Andre Beauvigny of San Francisco, the Stephen Grogans of San Marino, Enriquez de la Vega of Los Angeles, Mrs. Campbell's mother Mrs. S. W. Strauss, and Mrs. Gannon's mother, Mrs. James Noble.

Thanksgiving and Polo Bring Visitors to Palm Desert Area

The Thanksgiving holiday and the Polo Matches at Eldorado attracted many visitors to the Palm Desert area. Clark Gable and Kay Spreckles had lunch on the Terrace at Shadow Mountain Club while the children played tennis. Hugh O'Brien escorted pretty redheaded Doris Hurley to the Polo Fields.

Another polo enthusiast was Sandra Tevis who was vacationing from San Francisco College for Women. She and Linda Cline from Seattle are both Juniors at the San Francisco school and following the polo, the schoolmates were flown back to San Francisco by Bill Gilmore, one of those flying polo players.

Also on hand for Thanksgiving, were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lanz. Mr. Lanz is the creator of Woody Woodpecker and his wife is Woody's voice. They were guests at the Shadow Mountain Terrace in Palm Desert.

Beverly Hills Dinner Group at S.M. Club

The Shadow Mountain Club was filled with Beverly Hills residents one night last week when Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fischer hosted a dinner party there. Mr. Fischer is former Mayor of Beverly Hills.

Among the guests at the Palm Desert club were J. B. Edwards, executive vice president of the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Edwards; Jack Freeman, councilman of the City of Beverly Hills and past president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Freeman; John Glick, manager of the J. W. Robinson store in Beverly Hills and past president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Glick; and James McDonald, vice president of the Security First National Bank, and Mrs. McDonald.

The entire party stayed at the Waterman's Gala Villa in Palm Desert. Others in the group were Evan L. Griffith and Ray Hudson, both with the Metropolitan Water District of Los Angeles.

Bridal Shower Given for Bonnie Kolpacoff

A bridal shower hostessed by Jacki Walker at her parents' home on San Mateo Drive Saturday evening, honored bride-elect Bonnie Kolpacoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kolpacoff of 135 Palo Verde Avenue, who will be a December bride.

Silver wedding bells and white streamers decorated the living room of the Walker home and a large silver and white box held the many lovely gifts.

Among the guests were Leeann Howard, Diana Sullivan, Denni Bogert, Clair Harrison, Karen Guin, Linda Roberts, Mary Kendall and Dorothy Walker. Also present were Mrs. Cleo Walker and Mrs. William Kolpacoff.

Christmas cards are one of the newest of Yuletide traditions, dating back only a little more than a century. They became popular around the turn of the century.

Toths Host Family Dinner on Thanksgiving

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shantic Jr. have returned to their home in Sacramento after spending Thanksgiving weekend at the Cerritos Drive home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Toth. While they were here they attended the Peggy Hunt style show at El Mirador and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Youdath in Beaumont.

Other guests at the Toth home Thanksgiving Day were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Tinta from Glendora, Mr. and Mrs. John Youdath of Beaumont and the Toth's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Toth, (she is the former Valerie Hubbs).

Following dinner an evening of cards and dancing was enjoyed.

Angel View Bazaar on Saturday

When the D. H. S. Women's Auxiliary of Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation of Desert Hot Springs holds its Christmas Bazaar on Saturday, two "Week-end Flings" will be given away, general chairman Lola Hemingway announced today.

One will represent a complete two day vacation for two people, worth $85, the other, valued at $45, is good for one day. The two were made possible by the co-operation of the Rental Owners Association and Desert Hot Springs merchants and cafes.

Gift items of all kinds and for all ages will be on sale at the Bazaar which will be held two doors east of Palm Drive on Persimmon Blvd., next door to the Thrift Shop maintained by the Auxiliary. Doors open at 10 a. m., with the Snack Bar serving luncheons, starting at 11.

All proceeds from the Bazaar will be used to furnish the solarium of the new building for Angel View.

Final plans for the Bazaar were made at the regular meeting of the Auxiliary, where president Grace Pedersen welcomed 50 members and 11 guests.

Also discussed were plans for the annual Christmas Party, with Sarah Weiss and Mae Miskell appointed as chairman.

AMORC Official to Pay Visit

Rosierucians of Desert Hot Springs will be visited by Mrs. Frances R. Holland, Grand Councilor of AMORC and E. Allen Craig, Inspector General of AMORC on Sunday, December 6 at 3 p. m., at the Improvement Association Hall in Desert Hot Springs. These high Rosierucian officers for Southern California normally make one official visit a year to all lodges and chapters of their jurisdiction of the Order.

Art, Music Program Set For Redlands

Holiday Season Event Due At Watchorn Hall

An afternoon reception of art and music designed to delight culturally aware Southlanders is being sponsored by the University of Redlands Art Department and Friends of the Feld Quartet, from 2:30 - 5 p. m., Sunday.

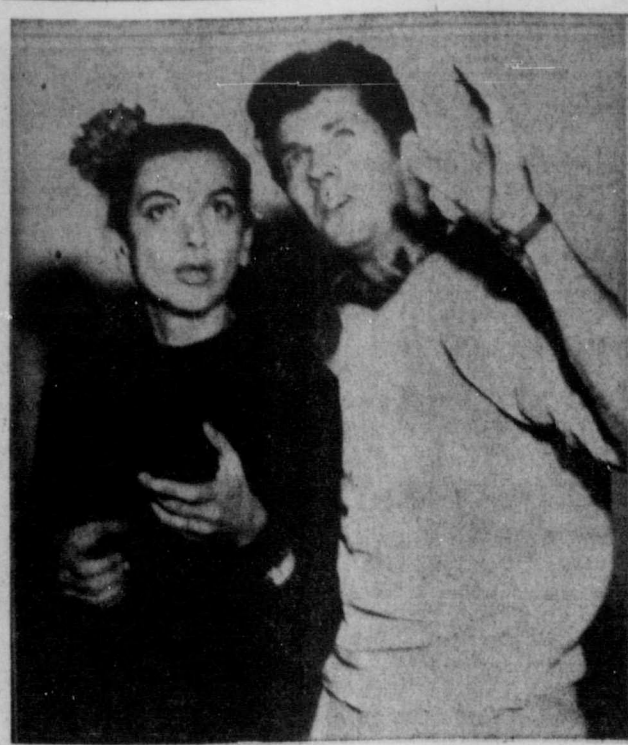

Watchorn Hall will be the setting for this holiday season event to which the public is invited.

ARTIST EYVIND Earle, of Northridge, former art director of Disney's "Sleeping Beauty" will be present at the reception. On display will be 20 of the noted artist's latest paintings.

The Feld Quartet, in residence for their second year at the university since their miraculous escape from Communist-dominated Hungary and Poland, will also participate. The quartet will present selections from their repertoire at 3:15 - 3:30 p. m. and again at 4:15 - 4:30 p. m.

THE TEA AND reception will mark the opening of Earle's exhibit to be displayed at the university through Dec. 27. The beauty of realism is captured in Earle's work, and with his imaginative definition of nature, realism is executed with precision, simplicity and directness.

Mrs. William Hoyt, chairman of the Friends of the Feld Quartet, made arrangements for the artist's appearance and exhibit. A percentage of proceeds from all pictures sold will be contributed to the Friends of the Feld Quartet fund to augment and promote the quartet's appearances and support.

Nothing New About This Payola Routine

NEW YORK—I just remembered that I was guilty of handing out a "payola" a long, long time ago. And so were you, and you, and YOU! Remember when you took your teacher a big red apple? And sent Teacher a handkerchief for Christmas? The question is: shouldn't my first grade teacher, now a nice old lady of about 90, be investigated for not refusing the big red apple?

than 50 years. . . Concerning a Cafe Society loafer, Arthur Shindler said: "He's very industrious; he works every World's Fair."

Last Friday was "Music Publishers' and Records' Day" at Dist. Atty. Hogan's office — with just everybody dropping in (by subpoena). A good time wasn't had by most!

"DON'T PRINT THAT": The State Liquor Authority is investigating a famous night club and its owner. . . They'll deny it but John Wayne and his old buddy and pubrel man, Jim Henaghan, had a screaming session on "Alamo" down in Texas, and Duke let one go. Nobody wounded. . . The payola probes hope to nail a cafe operator, also in music, who knows lots of d.j.'s real good.

Jackie Gleason of "Take Me Along" will increase the poundage of the Arthur Godfrey TV spec in January. . . Pearl Bailey, ill, turned down a B'way show. . . Writer Joe Bigelow is the "bridgroom-elect" of Penny Morgan, long-time lieutenant of Robt. Q. Lewis. Radio-and-TV friends bachelordined him at Danny's. . . Betty Winsett, Jim Eiler and Will B. Able are doing a "Maria Malice" sketch at the Quadrille, with the inevitable line, "Beware of Greeks bearing gifts."

A certain music publisher says that a certain disc jockey (not mentioned in the probe) phoned him: "You know that $500 loan I got from you three months ago?" The publisher couldn't remember any loan, he could only remember a payola. The d.j. continued: "I can pay it back now." The publisher later commented: "I'm making more money now getting back payolas than I'm making in the music business!"

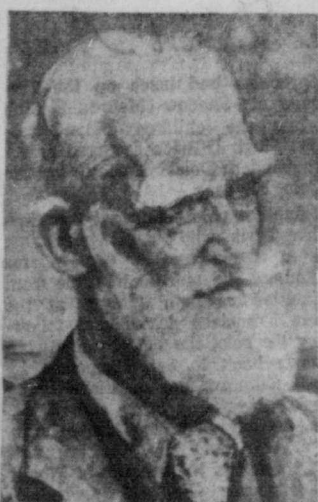

Sid Luft, Judy Garland's husband, phoned Eddie Fisher to console him about Liz Taylor's double pneumonia — and to reveal that Judy's long-time excess weight evidently isn't obesity but excess water absorption. After four months' rest and treatment, she may be slim again. As for Liz Taylor's double pneumonia, she asked Eddie to bring ice cream to her at Doctors Hospital at midnight.

Andy Griffith was saying over at "Destry" that when a teenage boy starts noticing girls, it's only a phase. It shouldn't last more

Clarke to Discuss Shaw --And 'Singing Commercials'

With only two more topics remaining in his annual Adventures in Living lecture series and "great-circle discussions," author John Robert Clarke will speak on "G. B. Shaw and the Singing Commercials," at 8 p. m., tonight in the Desert Inn.

Clarke, now in his sixteenth series of public talks in the Southland on the art of exploring past customs for light on present alternatives, will consider Shaw's public life and private laughter as well as their reflection in such plays as "The Devil's Disciple," "St. Joan" and "Don Juan in Hell."

"SHAW WAS NOT the first," says Clarke, "to weigh the harder truths against their cost, and therefore become a satirist. But he became one of the best, who troubled and delighted the western world for half a century."

Noting that Shaw's way of being serious was to tell jokes, Clarke remarked that the comic effects were "ingeniously designed to create psychic pratfalls in his audience. It seems miraculous that his audiences took the dumping, until we reflect that most people took for granted his jibes were aimed at other people."

"For this reason," Clarke added, "some of his most important ideas seldom struck home. 'An example? Among many, here's a neat one: that when we declare our eagerness to search for 'truth,' we must first inquire how much 'truth' we can afford."

HIGHLIGHT OF the current series, presented in San Diego each week as well as locally, is Clarke's "great-circle discussion" plan, unique on the coast for its warm encouragement of dissenting opinions. Lectures are followed by coffee and refreshments at 9:15 with the discussion circle forming at 9:30, and monitored by Mr. Clarke.

Final talks slated for the Desert Inn are: Dec. 10, "Gandhi's Stake in World Society," and Dec. 17, "How to Play Games with Zen Buddhism," with tickets available at the Desert Book Shop.

'Naughty 90's' Room Will Open

The Ranch Club will open its new "Naughty 90's Room" Friday, Dec. 11 for a one-month run as a public club before it is converted to a private key club Jan. 11.

The room, featuring plush and nostalgia, will offer entertainment keyed to turn-of-the-century songs. Group singing, assisted by hostesses and pianist, will be a standard attraction.

Popcorn will be served without charge, sandwiches will cost a nickel each, and a single price will prevail for all drinks.

Wallichs Visit At Desert Home

By JEAN PATANE

The Cien Wallichs family came down Thanksgiving afternoon to spend the weekend at their desert home on Treasure Trail. Their daughter Linda was a student at Redlands University and has many friends in the desert area.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallichs (he is an executive of Electrical Musical Industries) returned two weeks ago from an around world tour combining pleasure with business. He attended a meeting of EMI in London and visited the many offices on the continent as well as India, Pakistan, Hong Kong and Tokyo, stopping in the Hawaiian Islands en route home.

Highlighting the trip was the celebration of their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary while in Paris. They left the desert Sunday afternoon, arriving in town for the Grammy Awards Dinner at the Beverly Hilton Hotel Sunday night.

Thanksgiving holiday weekend houseguests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith (he is president of Cathedral City Rotary Club) were their granddaughter, Roberta Paine and her friend, Bonny Lee Hansen of Burbank. The girls arrived Wednesday night and enjoyed swimming and horseback riding over desert trails. The Smiths took them to dinner at the Desert Air Hotel and the Biltmore Hotel and luncheon at the Riviera. Sunday morning they attended the chuckwagon breakfast at White Sun Guest Ranch.

Here from Santa Monica to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Madeline Miller were her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Bluth and daughters, Karen, Judy, Debbie and Melanie, and son, Steven. Mr. Bluth, who is associated with the Missile Division of Douglas Aircraft, recently returned from England with a group representing the company. Karen, who won the Kiwanis Music Scholarship, is attending U.C.L.A.

Among the Thanksgiving weekend guests at Kelley Cottages were Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Skelton and sons, Dennis and David, of La Verne, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gleason from Long Beach, and Mr. Ralph Esparza and family from Los Angeles.

Here from Manhattan Beach to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clark were her son and family, Marvin and Vera Brown and children, Beverly and Terry. The Browns were guests at Kelley Cottages while visiting with the Clarks over the holiday weekend. Joining the family for Thanksgiving dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sturdevant of Rancho Mirage.

Susan Riehl, who is attending the University for Women in San Diego, spent the holiday vacation at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ruby Anderson and cousin, Willen, who was home from San Bernardino where he is attending Val'ev College.

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mesick were co-owners of Pine Wood Lodge, in Big Bear. Mrs. Eileen Brown who manages the resort hotel, and Fred W. Slingerland. Mesick has sold his A-1 TV shop to Doug Russell, formerly of Los Angeles.

Marsha Morris, daughter of Mrs. Harris Johnson, was home from San Pasqual Academy in Escondido to spend the holiday vacation with her family.

Regina Wacek spent the Thanksgiving weekend in Los Angeles as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Daniels.

Bob Irvine returned to Santa Monica Sunday, where he is on the faculty of Lincoln Junior High School, after spending the holiday vacation with Mrs. Irvine at their home in De Luxe Trailer Park. Saturday they entertained with a belated Thanksgiving dinner for their weekend houseguests, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rousin of Inglewood, and joining them was Mrs. Paul Lee Stone of De Luxe. On Thanksgiving Day the Irvines visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas La Mountain in Beaumont.

Joining Mrs. Alice Otto and her son, Jim, for the Thanksgiving celebration were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Picard and children, Nancy and Tommy, who make their home in San Gabriel.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Segal and children, Dennis and Janet, who live in Inglewood, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Kane at her Westview Apartments.

Over the weekend, Mrs. Virginia C. Smith entertained as her houseguests Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hawkins of Los Angeles.

Lou Jacobin, who recently returned from a summer in Alaska gathering material for the fifteenth annual edition of his "Guide to Alaska," spent the Thanksgiving weekend at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Steinmeyer in Rolling Hills. According to Jacobin, who has spent many years in Alaska and the Far North, the 49th State had the greatest tourist year to date.

RABBI WINOKUR

Temple Isaiah To Hear Rabbi Friday Night

"Believing and Belonging" will be his sermon topic when Rabbi Abraham Winokur, president of the Western States Region of the Rabbinical Assembly of America appears as guest in the pulpit of Temple Isaiah, Friday December 4, at 8:15 p.m.

Rabbi Winokur is a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America and has been spiritual leader of the Jewish Community of Pacific Palisades for the past eight years. He is particularly interested in the field of creative Jewish literature and has written and published articles in this field.

ROAD WORK WILL COST $24-MILLION

In an annual report of county road deficiencies submitted to the Board of Supervisors this week, Road Commissioner A. C. Keith said $24,229,000 would be needed to improve currently deficient roads with a mileage of 771 representing 27 per cent of the total county road mileage of 2,856.

"This per mile cost of $31,516 is indicative of the present rural character of the county," said Keith.

"AS GROWTH AND traffic demands increase, the need for higher type and more extensive facilities will increase and although present financing would seemingly reduce these deficiencies, it is obviously not keeping pace with increasing demands."

Keith said that subdivision roads which cost $1,500,000 last year are now county roads. He said that restrictive ordinances which would force subdividers to build roads to county standards would make less demand on public funds for streets later on.

"WE ARE accused at the state level of exaggerating our deficiencies," said Supervisor George Berkeley. "Do you use the same criteria as other counties for arriving at our road deficiency percentage?"

Keith replied that his studies are made in accordance with formulas and directions of law. He said, however, that a matter of judgment enters into any study.

A TABLE OF comparison with other counties presented by Keith shows San Bernardino County with a total mileage of 4,205, deficient mileage of 1057 or 25 per cent, at a total cost of $45,216,000 or $41,000 per deficient mile, and Orange County with a total mileage of 648, deficient mileage of 163 or 25 per cent, at a total cost of $14,974,000, or $92,000 per deficient mile.

The per mile cost of the total road system for each of the three counties is $8,500 for Riverside, $10,700 for San Bernardino, and $23,000 for Orange, according to Keith's figures.

Indio Man Gets Housing Term

RIVERSIDE — At the suggestion of Supervisor George Berkeley, the board of supervisors reapportioned G. L. Christiansen of Indio Monday to serve a new four-year term on the Riverside County Housing Authority board. Christiansen's new term will expire Nov. 23, 1963.

Open House Set For Security's Indio Branch

Security First National Bank's new Indio Branch building, which will hold open house December 12 from 2 to 6 p. m., has been "designed with the customer in mind," says Ira Johnson, vice president and branch manager.

One of the biggest service features, in area as well as convenience, is the spacious parking lot adjoining the north side of the building. The parking area will accommodate 26 cars and will have a special lane for use by customers wishing to bank at the drive-in window, another new feature of the building, he said.

From the parking lot visitors and customers may enter the bank from either the recessed patio-type front entrance or directly from the parking lot through the rear entrance.

The drive-in window will be available for those customers who are in a hurry to do last-minute shopping downtown or just wish to enjoy the convenience of banking without leaving their car, Johnson said.

SAUND FEATURED IN TWO MAGAZINES

WESTMORLAND — D. S. Saund Congressional representative from the 29th California district, is the subject of a feature article in the December "Reader's Digest." "The Man Who Came to Zindpur," by Pierre and Peggy Streit, deals with incidents of Saund's return to his native India in 1957 after an absence of 37 years. Saund was in the infant Republic of India studying American foreign-aid projects.

As a result of Saund's inspiration, the article relates, the villagers built a school, dug a new well and built a road.

The article is condensed from a December article in the Christian Herald magazine.

"CRAZYLEGS" TO ADDRESS BOOSTERS

First Club Dinner to Hear Noted Athlete

Elroy "Crazylegs" Hirsch, one of the nation's most colorful athletic stars, will be the speaker of the evening when the Palm Springs Booster Club meets Monday, December 14, to honor Claude Ballagh's Palm Springs High School football team and the Junior Varsity, coached by Bob Gilmore and Dick Hough.

The Indians, with a green team, made a creditable showing this year and the Popooses gridders ran up a 7-1 record.

THE DINNER will be at 6:30 p.m. at the High School cafeteria. Tickets, at $2.50 each, are available from Booster Club members, Ramon Drug Store and the Desert Camera Shop.

Boosters and those attending the dinner are planning to buy two tickets each, the second one to sponsor one of the football players.

Major shake-up in the high school league set-up for next season was announced today with word that Banning High School had withdrawn from the Desert Valley League and allied itself with the De Anza League.

Brown Ready For Charnley 'At Any Time'

Retains Crown by Fifth Round TKO; Welcomes Rematch

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — "That kid," JJoe Brown said idly. "I'll fight him again tomorrow and beat him easier."

Thus he dismissed British boilermaker Dave Charnley, the British Empire champion who failed to come out for the sixth round Wednesday night in his effort to wrest away Brown's world lightweight championship.

It was a two inch gash over the right eye which put Charnley out of action with his sixth loss in 40 pro fights, but there was a difference of opinion as to how he got the cut.

"It was an unintentional butt," Charnley's manager, ruddy faced Arthur Boggs, said.

BUT BROWN countered, "butt, nothing. I hit him with a left and then a right, and I cut him with the left. It was as good an over-hand left as I ever threw."

The victory was Brown's sixth knockout win in eight defenses of the title he won three years ago from Wallace (Bud) Smith. And Brown thought it was one of his easiest.

"I'd give him a rematch," he said, "but it's up to my manager (Lou Viscusi) to make the matches. I'll fight Charnley tomorrow, anywhere, even London, if I can get the money out of there. Just so I get a big purse."

BROWN, IN AT 134, scored his 70th win and his 36th by knocking out 104 pro fights. He said Charnley, who had knocked out 20 opponents previously, never hurt him. Charnley weighed 133½.

Charnley preserved his record of never being knocked off his feet. Referee Jimmy Webb and both judges, Ernie Taylor and Bill Cornelius, had Brown far ahead on points. Webb gave Brown four rounds and scored one even for a 50-46 tally. Taylor gave Brown four rounds and Charnley the last for a 49-46 count, and Cornelius gave Brown every round for a 50-45 score.

A crowd estimated around 6,500 paid a gross gate of $32,720.

Top Pros Tee Off At Coral Gables In $25,000 Open

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (UPI) — Cloudy skies and mild temperatures set the scene as big-time golf returned to the elegant old Biltmore Country Club today.

A star-spangled field of 150 players teed off in the first annual $25,000 Coral Gables Open on the memory - crowded fairways now known as the Biltmore municipal course.

Doug Ford, Arnold Palmer, Art Wall Jr., and Dow Finsterwald, among the elite of contemporary golf, drew galleries where Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen and Bobby Jones spun the thrills for the sports fans of another era.

The Biltmore Open was played here from 1931 to 1937, drew the top golfers of the day and offered $10,000, a top money event back then.

Host pro Bill Tinker predicted sub-par scoring if the weather remained pleasant. He said the winter grass is coming in just in time to make the conditions of the greens excellent.

Syracuse Gridders Reach Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Syracuse football team arrives today for its game Saturday against UCLA in Memorial Coliseum.

The UCLA squad concentrated on defense again Wednesday working out against Syracuse offensive plays. Coach Bill Barnes said both tailback Bill Kilmer and Bob Smith were continuing to improve from injuries.

ARMY ELECTS CO-CAPTAINS

WEST POINT, N.Y. (UPI) — Frank Gibson, an end from Belaire, Ohio, and guard Al Vandenberg, of Midland Park, N.J., have been elected co-captains of Army's 1960 football team.

THE SELECTIONS pointed the national spotlight squarely on Robertson, who last season averaged 32.6 points per game in winning the national scoring crown for the second straight time. No player ever has won the major college title three times and a number of other scoring marks are within Robertson's range.

HOW COACHES VIEW BASKETBALL RACE IN U. S. THIS YEAR

NEW YORK (UPI) — Here's how the United Press International Board of Basketball Coaches predicted the nation's major college basketball teams will rank at the close of the 1959-60 season (first place votes in parentheses):

Team	Points
1. Cincinnati (18)	289
2. California (10)	226
3. Kentucky (13)	222
4. West Virginia (2)	217
5. North Carolina (3)	210
6. Ohio State (1)	138
7. Indiana (1)	114
8. Louisville (1)	64
9. St. Joseph's (1)	61
10. Kansas State (1)	58
11. Utah, 42; 12. Bradley, 38; 13. St. John's, 35; 14. St. Louis, 30; 15. Kansas, 27; 16. Southern California, 22; 17. Providence, 20; 18. North Carolina State, 16; 19. New York U., 11; 20. Villanova, 9.

He's a pass-catcher of the old Dante Lavelli and Mac Speedie tradition.

"He just seemed to us to be a great football player."

Burford led the nation in pass receiving and in yards gained on those passes — with not too much opposition.

But the young star doesn't care to take all the credit for that.

"First off," he says, "we had another fine end who did a lot of the decoy work that allowed me to get in the open many times. His name is Ben Robinson and he helped shake me loose so many times that it is impossible to count."

"Then you have to take into consideration the fact that I had the country's greatest passer, Dick Norman, throwing to me. That fellow threw strikes every time."

"In the game against California, Dick threw 39 passes and completed 33, according to the records. The records also show that he had one interception and

Riviera Driving Range Action to Start Saturday

Five thousand brand new golf balls are ready to be whacked at Palm Springs Riviera Hotel's new 23-tee driving range, which will make its debut Saturday.

Open to the public from 8 a.m. until dark seven days a week, the range will be under the personal management and supervision of Dale Anderson, golf pro of the adjoining Riviera Hotel's 9-hole golf course, the only hotel links in the Palm Springs-desert area.

The 2,000-yard course will have a festive opening on Dec. 12 as Palm Springs' 12th lay-out.

Patrons of the Riviera's golf range will have a rare opportunity to perfect their golf swing under the tutelage of Anderson. A former Southern California PGA tournament king, the veteran golfer is recognized by golfing authorities as one of the top instructors in the country. Top golfing figures like Sam Snead and Herb Graffis have acclaimed his teaching prowess.

ADMIT THEY ARE LICKED

Dodgers Give Up in Sievers Trade Talk

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — The world champion Dodgers threw in the towel today and conceded the last-place Senators have them licked.

Footnote and frustrated after five straight days of trying to make a deal for Roy Sievers with Washington, General Manager Buzz Bavasi of Los Angeles wearily declared:

"I give up. I've tried everything."

Bavasi did make a tremendous effort, coming up with a number of different offers, but he can't say he didn't enter the Washington negotiations without warning.

"One American League owner told me he'd give me a thousand dollars if I could make a deal with the Senators," Bavasi said. "Now I see what he meant."

In all fairness to Washington President Cal Griffith, he has had offers for Sievers from four different clubs and he simply refuses to be stampeded into a trade for his 32-year-old slugger.

"I'd like to make a trade and I want to make one," he insists, "but I want to make sure I get value for value. Is there any crime in that?"

Negotiations virtually broke down completely between the Dodgers and Senators Wednesday although they will have another go-round, just for old times sake, next week at the major league meetings in Miami Beach.

Prior to the stalemate, Los Angeles had offered Ron Fairly, Don Zimmer an Clem Labine for Sievers, Russ Kemmer and any one of three infielders — Reno Bertoia, Ken Aspromonte or Billy Consolo. Washington wanted Don Demeter instead of Fairly and Danny McDevitt instead of L-bine, and that's when the Dodgers threw up their hands.

But in other ways the pre-season rankings are vastly different from the final rankings of last season. Only four of the final "top 10" of last year stay in the elite group-Cincinnati, Kentucky, and North Carolina, plus Kansas State which was ranked No. 1 but now drops to 10th with the loss of All-American Bob Boozer through graduation.

THE UPI BOARD of Coaches will rate the nation's top teams weekly throughout the season. Each of the 35 coaches, five from each of the nation's seven geographical areas, ranks the top 10 teams each week. These votes are compiled on a points basis, with 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 points awarded for votes from first through 10th place, to arrive at a consensus.

Completing the top 10 in the pre season ratings were Ohio State, Indiana, Louisville, St. Joseph's Pa., and Kansas State.

The "second 10" included in order, Utah, Bradley, St. John's, St. Louis, Kansas, Southern, California, Providence, North Carolina State, New York U., and Villanova.

Cards 66 To Lead By Three

Defending champion Willie Goggin, 53, of San Jose, was out in front by three strokes today as 151 golfers, 50 and over, started the second round of 18 in the third annual National Seniors Open at Bermuda Dunes and Eldorado Country Clubs.

Goggin, playing his first round of the tournament, toured the par 72 Bermuda Dunes course in a record 66 to top the large field, which completed its first 18 holes Wednesday, by three strokes.

THE BULKY FIELD teed off today in the second round of 18. Those who played Tuesday at Bermuda, were at Eldorado Country Club today and those who played at Eldorado Tuesday, were at Bermuda.

Wednesday's second division will renew activity Friday for their second 18, reversing the courses they played yesterday.

FERDIE CATROPA of Long Island who carded a 69 Tuesday at Bermuda is in second place but had to share it with Art Bell of San Francisco who shot a 69 Wednesday.

Goggin's 66 was scored in two even 33s, out and in. He recorded seven birdies, one bogie and ten pars at Bermuda Dunes.

Jimmy Hines of Eldorado Country Club was in a three-way tie for third place in the combined two division scores. With Labron Harris, Stillwater, Okla., and Olin Dutra of Rialto, he carded a 71.

GENE SARAZEN, who tied for first in the first Senior Open in 1957 and finished second in 1958, carded a 75. He was handicapped by a burned wrist suffered in a heating pad accident.

Dutra was credited with the best shot of the day. He eagled the par four 386 yard No. 11 when he slapped a 160-yard approach shot into the cup.

AFTER TOMORROW'S play the field will be cut to the low 100 who will complete the 72-hole medal play match Saturday and Sunday, again alternating with 18 at Bermuda and 18 at Eldorado.

Scores of the leaders:

Fullmer, Webb Break Camp for Title Bout Friday

LOGAN, Utah (UPI) — Champion Gene Fullmer and challenger Spider Webb broke camp today and motored into Logan for their 15-round middleweight title fight, NBA version, Friday night.

Co-promoter Norman Rothschild predicted a near-sellout of 7,000 at the Utah State University Field House.

"The gate may approach $100,000," he said, "because of our $60,000 cash advance, our $10,000 worth of orders and the increasing sales in various cities."

Fullmer said, "I hope to knock him out this time," as he broke camp at his home bailiwick, West Jordan, Utah.

Gene had to be content with a unanimous 10-round decision in their previous fight at Salt Lake City, Sept. 11, 1958. That was before he won the NBA version of the 160-pound crown by stopping Carmen Basilio in the 14th round last Aug. 28.

Dear Abby... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My problem seems so hopeless I am almost ashamed to write it. But here goes: I am a 27-year-old man who is normal in every respect but I am so bow-legged it is pitiful. I am not slightly bow-legged. I am VERY bow-legged. I have even thought of asking a doctor to break both my legs and to reset them, but I was told it can't be done. I hate to ask girls for dates and swimming is out of the question. Is there any hope for a bow-legged guy who is honest and clean and lonesome?

BOW-LEGGED
DEAR BOW: Get over the notion that because your legs look like "O's" you have to take a backseat to men whose legs look like "11's". The most harmful curve is in your thinking. Forget it, and everyone else will.

DEAR ABBY: I was tickled to death to see that item in your column about peeping toms. I was a police reporter for 22 years and I know from experience that a guy who hangs around windows trying to get a thrill is a dangerous character. Sooner or later he gets himself worked up to a pitch where somebody gets hurt. You should run that letter again, Abby, and have it set in sixty-point type so nobody will miss it.

"COOP" (Cicero, Ill.)
DEAR ABBY: I think your answer to that Peeping Tom business was all wrong. What's so bad about looking in a window and watching a lady undress if her shades are up?

I think if you are going to report the man who is looking, you should also report the lady who gives him something to look at.

NO DOPE

DEAR ABBY: My husband left me five months ago for another woman. I have two daughters. One 14 and one 18. My eldest daughter is getting married soon. If her father is not back by that time, we do not intend to invite him to the wedding. My girls and myself are very bitter toward him for what he has done.

I want to know if it would be proper to have my older brother give my daughter away? Another thing — when I make up the invitations, do they have to read that "Mr. and Mrs. So and So" are marrying off a daughter? Or can I just have "Mrs. So and So"?

MRS. SO AND SO
DEAR MRS SO AND SO: You had better ask your clergyman his opinion of dropping "Mr. So and So's" name from your wedding invitations. I'd say that unless your separation is permanent, his name belongs with yours. Under the present circumstances, it would be proper to have your brother give your daughter away.

CONFIDENTIAL TO BOW W. AND KATHY C: Beg, borrow or buy a November McCall's and read aloud to each other "Why Teenage Marriages are Falling Apart". This article could change your minds and I hope it does. Good luck!

CONFIDENTIAL TO JINNY: Give them a set of towels marked "hers" and "his".

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

ORDINANCE NO. 446

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, AMENDING SECTION 921.54 OF DIVISION 2 OF THE "PALM SPRINGS ORDINANCE CODE" TO PROHIBIT THE UNAUTHORIZED TAKING OF TELEVISION SIGNALS AND PROVIDING PENALTIES THEREFOR.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. A new Article 29.1A is hereby added to the "Palm Springs Ordinance Code" to read as follows:

ARTICLE 29.1A

UNAUTHORIZED TAKING OF TELEVISION SIGNALS

29.1A1 Any person who by means of any unauthorized connection in physical contact with, or otherwise receives, television signals, programs, pictures or sound from any cable, wires or equipment used for distribution of such signals, programs, pictures or sound for pay or hire, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in Sections 9311 through 9314 of this Code.

29.1A2 Any person who for the purpose of enabling himself or others to receive television signals, programs, pictures or sound without payment, makes or causes to be made an unauthorized physical connection with any cable, wires or equipment used for distribution of such signals, programs, pictures or sound for pay or hire, for the purpose of receiving himself or others to receive television signals, programs, pictures or sound without payment, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in Sections 9311 through 9314 of this Code.

29.1A3 Any person who without consent of the owner willfully tamper with, removes or injures any cable, wires or equipment used for distribution of television signals, programs, pictures or sound for pay or hire, is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in Sections 9311 through 9314 of this Code.

SECTION 2. The City Clerk is hereby ordered and directed to certify to the passage of this ordinance and to cause the same to be published once in the City of Palm Springs, California, a daily newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in the City of Palm Springs, California, and that said ordinance shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after passage.

W. M. ROBERT, Mayor of Palm Springs, California.

ATTEST: MARY G. RINOWALD, City Clerk of Palm Springs, California.

I, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Palm Springs, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance, being Ordinance No. 446, of the City of Palm Springs, California, was duly passed and adopted at a meeting of the City Council of said City held on the 12th day of November, 1959, and was read in full thereat, and on the 24th day of November, 1959, the second reading of said ordinance was read and was duly passed by the following vote:

San Francisco. Margetts is vice president in charge of sales and operations. All told, 142 company representatives and their wives landed here and checked into the El Mirador Hotel for a combined holiday and business conference. They represent the company in the Western states and Hawaii. (Desert Sun Photo)

The salesmen have all won their way into the 50-member Pacemakers Club, symbolic of sales leadership in the company. All members of the club are also members of the Management Advisory Committee which functions at the conference and during the year 1960.

THE COMPANY - WIDE incentive program, which has earned many valuable prizes for all the salesmen competing, was set up by W. P. Fuller & Co., at the beginning of this year to bring management and sales personnel closer together, and to improve sales and marketing practices through the free exchange of ideas between management and men in the field.

At the four-day conference here, the company's 10 top salesmen will select one of their number as president of the Pacemakers Club.

DURING THE conference business sessions, both salesmen and their wives are sitting in on a general discussion of the business future of the West and have learned something of Fuller's streamlined plans to meet the challenge of the '60's.

A special session for wives centered around a discussion of Fuller personnel benefits and talks by Fuller senior executives giving the wives a closer and clearer view of their husbands' activities with the company.

THE CONFERENCE is also being attended by members of the management group, sales managers and corporate staff, including the senior officers of the company.

President W. P. Fuller Brawner arrives today to attend the President's Award Banquet tonight when he will present special awards to leading salesmen.

A motion by Supervisor William Jones that the Board of Supervisors go on record as opposed to consolidation of justice courts in Riverside County failed to carry this week when only Supervisor Fred McCall supported the proposed action.

Supervisor George Berkey admitted that there is a lot of merit in statements made by opponents of consolidation that it would take the courts in outlying areas farther from the people, but he declared:

"I DON'T BELIEVE we should shut our eyes. We should get all the facts. I understand that the Grand Jury is going to make a recommendation to us."

"All I know," commented Administrative Officer Robert T. Andersen, "is that the Desert Bar Association (which is supporting consolidation) has met with the Grand Jury."

"I believe we should hear all sides and not close our minds," said Supervisor Paul Anderson.

ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL reasons given for consolidation of Justice Courts in the desert area into a Municipal Court is that civil cases involving over $500 but less than $3000 have to be tried in a Municipal Court and at present the only Municipal Courts in this county are many miles away in Riverside.

A Municipal Court can be es-

INDIO — Hundreds of vagrancy arrests are keeping Indio city police and sheriff's deputies busy. Besides local law enforcement agencies, railroad detectives also have their hands full as many free riders on freight trains are tossed off in the desert area.

Hobo camps in the desert area sometimes produce inhabitants that are indignant when routed by law officers since, they protest, no one has been bothering the camps for years.

Some law enforcement agencies credit the ideal desert weather with drawing a large number of vagrants each year.

Postmaster S. W. Williams suggested today that gift parcels for distant points be sent Air Parcel Post from now on, to expediate the expected deluge of gift mail deliveries.

Williams explained that Christmas card mailings this year are about equal to the comparable time last year, but that parcel mailings are somewhat slower.

Urging strong packaging of Christmas gift packages, William recommended printing recipients full name, street address, city, zone number and state on all mailing labels. He also urged enclosing an extra address label inside the packages.

mas cards and letters may be enclosed in packages, if appropriate postage is added to the package, and notice of the written contents are listed on the outside.

Most of all, Williams emphasized — mail it now.

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Trinity, Amherst and Wesleyan seem to have a penchant for tie football games, with Amherst the all-time champion against its two New England rivals. As of the '59 season, the Lord Jeffs had played nine tie games out of 54 with Trinity and nine of 64 with Wesleyan.
